

Diverless Installed Blind Flange

Easily fitted by ROV

Our diverless installed blind flange makes it possible to install blind flanges with the use of ROV only. This limits the operational planning and installation time.

- Flange fits perfectly even on angled faces
- Separate assemblies for placing and holding flange bolts and nuts
- Hot Stab connection for filling, draining or pressure testing
- Works for every type of flange face and size

For further information, email commercial@imenco.com