

Stinger ROV Operated Drilling Tool

Simple in-situ setup, operation and retrieval by assistance of standard work class ROV

The Stinger ROV Operated Drilling Tool is a portable hydraulically operated drilling machine which can be operated by a work class ROV. It is designed for subsea drilling operations on a variety of applications and steel thicknesses.

- Simple and reliable robust design
- Low maintenance with easily replaceable part when necessary
- Quick and simple change of drill bit
- Interchangeable drill bits up to Ø 135mm
- Can be supplied with suction pad, magnetic or claw type-fixing brackets
- Can be supplied with integrated valve pack for RPM and feed control
- Supplied with full documentation and instructions

For further information, email commercial@imenco.com